TITLE: Cross-Systems Consulting Associate

SUPERVISOR: Executive Vice President, Cross-Systems Consulting

PURPOSE: The Associate plays a critical role in the success of the Cross-Systems Consulting Unit by coordinating and supporting a range of key team and cross-unit functions. The Associate will manage program logistics, technical and project support services, coordinating priority initiatives and executing routine delivery of services to clients. This role is responsible for ensuring the highest quality preparation, execution and follow-through of the unit’s client engagements and project deliverables, including research, analysis, and preparation of written deliverables. The Associate also helps the unit document, manage, and learn from information across clients, initiatives, and projects, to facilitate client satisfaction and overall project advancement. This position maintains a broad perspective of consulting unit needs and support provided to Cross-Systems Consulting clients and consultants as they work to create greater opportunities and outcomes for young people.

SALARY:
The salary range, duties and responsibilities of this position meet the requirements of Section 13 (a) (1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act and therefore qualifies as an "exempt" position. The starting salary for this hybrid position is targeted between $36,400 –$50,000 based upon knowledge, skills, experience, and geographic location, with a comprehensive benefits package.

Organization & Background

Founded in 1998, the Forum for Youth Investment is a national nonprofit, nonpartisan “action tank” committed to changing the odds that all children and youth are ready for college, work, and life. The Forum connects leaders to ideas, services and networks that can help them make more intentional decisions that are good for young people, even in the face of limited resources. It helps leaders who are trying to improve & align policies, plan & partner for impact, and/or strengthen programs & adult practice across all the systems and settings where young people spend time.

The Forum is a thriving organization with a budget of $11 million, a staff of 50, and headquarters in Washington, DC. The Forum is working to advance racial equity in youth serving systems, bridging that work with our internal Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion initiatives. The Forum overall is funded by a mix of foundations, corporations, and a fee-for-service contract base. For more information on the Forum, please visit www.forumfyi.org.
Position Responsibilities

- Provide day-to-day support for a portfolio of projects that focus on integrated consultations across education, youth workforce development, human services, child welfare, and juvenile justice.

- Plan and provide technical support for deliverables associated with client engagements, special projects/initiatives, and events of the consulting unit and organization-wide (e.g., meetings/convenings, trainings and facilitations, briefing papers, internal reports, outreach materials, etc.).

- Provide direct administrative assistance to the unit’s leaders, including scheduling meetings, coordinating travel, completing organizational paperwork for unit expenses in coordination with the Forum’s finance department, and maintaining records and files.

- Ensure the unit successfully delivers high-quality public commitments (keynotes, panel appearances, external presentations, etc.) by fielding requests for speaking engagements, managing administrative and logistical preparations for each commitment, supporting delivery by managing chats and sharing resources, documenting success, and sharing insights with the full team as relevant.

- Support the team’s idea development, dissemination, and amplification work, including research on relevant policies and practices, quantitative and qualitative information synthesis/analysis, preparation of materials, and preparing presentations. Manage files and tracking systems, with a goal of maximizing knowledge sharing and learning across projects and units.

- Track and analyze information across clients and projects and help maintain a high-quality standard across the consulting unit’s activities and track/report against the consulting unit’s performance metrics.

- Document client work and projects, in coordination with unit leadership, and maintain related client, project, administrative and development files, ensuring that they are up-to-date and reflective of the Forum’s other office systems as needed.

- Liaise across departments and divisions to represent the consulting unit’s interests in quality and consistency across the organization. Help design and implement standards and systems that optimize organizational efficiency.

- Assume responsibility for new assignments related to the scope of this role.
