Scores Reporter

The Scores Reporter is a data collection and reporting system. It is designed to complement the Youth Program Quality Intervention (YPQI). The system can be used to collect assessments, generate planning reports, and develop and monitor improvement plans.

Training Center

The Training Center is a system used to engage with interactive online learning materials presented in the form of courses and trainings. The system records participant progress and achievements. The primary offerings of the system are PQA Basics, Planning with Data, and the Youth Work Methods.

Resource Center

The Resource Center contains materials and other supports for network leaders and trainers. The resources are organized into folders that correspond to specific trainings and stages of the Youth Program Quality Intervention (YPQI).

Goal Review

Sustainability Planning

Goal Monitoring- Goal Review

Goal Review

1.Date

2.Did you meet this performance goal?

3.Performance

Provide a detailed review of how your actual performance compares to your target performance on this goal.

4.Implementation

What influenced your program's performance on this goal? If project goals have not been met, provide an explanation for this and whether it seems likely the goals will be met in the future. If project goals were met, how can you sustain these positive effects moving forward?

5.Quality Improvement Monitoring

What data did you use throughout the year reveal to monitor progress towards this goal? How did you respond to that data?

Goal Monitoring- Sustainability Planning

Sustainability Planning

1.Date

2.Given where you are now in your grant cycle, please share your current sustainability plan as outlined in your grant application. Reflect on your program year and what you've observed.

How will you maintain momentum moving forward? How has this shifted from your original sustainability planning, given what you learned this year? This should include financial details, including plans for sustainability when grant funding is no longer available (e.g. community partnerships, other grant funding sources, available resources).

Next Steps

- 2023-24 Goal Review & Sustainability Plan due in Scores Reporter 9/30.
- Goal setting & monitoring will be structured differently this program year and won't kick off until Planning with Data in January 2025.
